About this Document

This is an important document that must be read carefully before making a decision in relation to this insurance (which is not compulsory). The Insurer is responsible for the content of this document.

This document can help You to:

- decide whether this insurance will meet Your needs; and
- compare it with other products You may be considering.

See the “General Definitions” section page for details regarding of terms that have special meaning. In some cases, a word with special meaning may be defined in a specific part of the Policy.

What You Need to Read and Understand

This document contains:

- this Part 1 – Important Information section which contains certain important notices, terms and other information;
- Part 2 – Policy Cover Sections which sets out the sections of cover this insurance can provide (subject to eligibility) and the other standard terms and conditions which will apply to the covers (including any applicable limits and exclusions). It includes General Definitions which set out the special meaning We give to certain words used in the Policy. Other words may be specially defined in a Policy section, term or condition.

If We issue the Named Insured with a Policy, the Named Insured will be given a Schedule. The Schedule sets out certain additional terms applicable to the Policy and other matters specific to You such as the cover You have been issued and the Policy Limits of Liability.

The Schedule must be read together with this document and any other documents We agree with the Named Insured will form part of the Policy that We issue. Where We agree, documents other than this document and the Schedule will form part of the Policy, any such documents will be dated and will include a statement identifying them as part of the Policy.

Together they form the Policy/contract with Us. These are all important documents and should be carefully read together and kept in a safe place for future reference.

Cost of this Insurance

Where We have agreed to issue the Policy We do so in return for the Named Insured paying or agreeing to pay Us the premium by the due date specified in Our invoice or Policy Schedule issued to them.

The premium also includes amounts that take into account Our obligation to pay any relevant compulsory government charges, taxes or levies (e.g. Stamp Duty and GST) in relation to the Policy. These amounts will be set out separately on Your Policy Schedule as part of the total premium payable.

Adjustments to premium may apply – See “Adjustments” in “General Conditions Applicable To All Sections Of The Policy”.

Minimum premiums may apply. This is the minimum amount we require in all cases and no adjustments will be made to reduce the premium below this.

If the Named Insured fails to pay the premium by the due date We may reduce any claim payment by the amount of premium owing and/or cancel the Policy, to the extent permitted by law.

Assumed Liability and Waived Rights

If You have entered into an agreement with another party:

- where You are assuming a greater liability than would apply had You not entered into that agreement; or
- which prevents You from taking a recovery action for damages, indemnity or contribution from that other party, it may adversely affect Your rights to cover under the Policy.

If You do, it may adversely affect Your rights to cover under the Policy and/or allow Us to cancel the Policy. Applicable law may restrict Our rights in certain circumstances. See “When We Can Refuse to Pay or Reduce the Amount We Pay Under a Claim” for further information.

Claims Made and Notified Insurance

Some covers under “Section Two – Management Liability and Professional Indemnity” of this Labour Force Liability Insurance Policy are issued on a claims made and notified basis.

This means that the Policy covers “Claims” that are first made against You by another person as defined in those sections and notified to Us during that Period of Insurance (not claims You submit for cover under the Policy).

Where Your Policy has an extended or additional reporting period, subject to the terms of the Policy, You may have:

- an additional period to tell Us about claims first made against You during the Period of Insurance; and/or
- cover for claims first made against You during the extended reporting period and which You tell Us about during the extended or additional reporting period – provided the claim is based on an act, error, or omission alleged to have been committed prior to the expiry of the Period of Insurance.

The Policy doesn't cover facts or circumstances of which You first became aware prior to the Period of Insurance, and which You knew or ought reasonably to have known had the potential to give rise to a claim against You, subject to any continuity of cover term which may, subject to its terms, provide an exception to this.

If a Retroactive Date is applied or shown on the Schedule, the Policy also doesn't cover claims arising directly or indirectly from any acts, errors, omissions, or events actually or allegedly occurring before that date. The above is only a high-level overview. You must refer to the Policy for full terms and conditions that apply.

Operation of section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth)

This notice and explanation does not form part of and is not a term of the Policy.

However, if, during the Period of Insurance, You become aware of facts that might give rise to a Claim against You, section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) provides You with an option to notify Us of those facts during the Period of Insurance. If You give Us written notification of such facts during the Period of Insurance pursuant to section 40(3), as long as You were not aware of such facts prior to the commencement of the Period of Insurance, the Policy will apply to a Claim (arising from those facts) made against You, even if the Claim is made against You after expiry of the Period of Insurance, subject to other terms, conditions and exclusions of the Policy.

For Your information, section 40(3) is detailed below:

"(3) Where the Insured gave notice in writing to the Insurer of facts that might give rise to a claim against the Insured as soon as was reasonably practicable after the insured became aware of those facts but before the insurance cover provided by the contract expired, the Insurer is not relieved of liability under the contract in respect of the claim, when made, by reason only that it was made after the expiration of the Period of Insurance cover provided by the contract".

Who We Cover

The Policy covers the Named Insured as defined in the "General Definitions Applicable to All Sections" on page 23. They are the persons who enter into the contract with the Insurer(s).

The Policy also extends cover to a relevant person who is not a Named Insured and:

- in relation to cover provided under Section One of the Policy and Policy terms relevant to that cover – falls within the definition of "You/Your" as defined in Section One of the Policy;
- in relation to cover provided under Section Two of the Policy and Policy terms relevant to that cover – falls within the definition of "You/Your/Insured" clause b), c) or d) in Section Two.

Such persons are third party beneficiaries who are entitled to access cover by reason of section 48 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) and not contracting parties.

No insurance is provided in relation to the interest of any persons not specified as being entitled to benefit under the Policy.

For details on the rights and obligations of such third party beneficiaries see "Third Party Beneficiaries" on page 20.

- b) any summons to be served upon the Insurers may be served upon:

In the event of a claim arising under the Policy immediate notice should be given to SURA Labour Hire.

Disclaimer

By entering into the Policy the Named Insured confirms and warrants that they have read the Policy documents provided to them.

Excess

If You make a claim under the Policy You may be required to pay one or more Excess(es). The descriptions of these Excess(es) and the circumstances in which they are applied are explained in this document, and the Schedule.

If You don't pay the Excess to Us or as We direct, We may deduct the Excess from the amount We pay for any claim. The relevant Limit of Liability we pay up to is less any applicable Excesses, unless We expressly state otherwise.

When We Can Refuse to Pay or Reduce the Amount We Pay Under a Claim

We may only ever refuse to pay or reduce the amount We pay under a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Some situations in which We may refuse to pay or reduce the amount We pay under a claim under the Policy (to the extent permitted by law) include (but are not limited to):

- a) when the Named Insured applies for cover (this includes new business, variations, extensions, reinstatements and renewals) and does not comply with Your Duty of Disclosure; or
- b) if You do not comply with or meet a Policy term or condition We can rely on an exclusion or other limitation (All referred to as "terms" when used in the Policy) – See "Our rights regarding the operation of or breach of a term of the Policy";
- c) if You make a fraudulent claim – See "Fraudulent claims" for more detail;
- d) where You have not or are not acting in accordance with Your duty of utmost good faith under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) – See "Duty of Utmost Good Faith" for more detail.

We may also have cancellation rights in the above circumstances to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Subject to applicable law, the amount of any claim entitlement can also be affected and/or reduced by other things, including any limits (e.g. monetary or time limits) or Deductible(s), any outstanding Premium and recoveries You or We might make relevant to a loss as set out in the Policy terms.

See "Our rights regarding the operation of or breach of a term of the Policy" for more detail.

Our rights regarding the operation of or breach of a term of the Policy

We will only rely on any rights We have regarding the operation of or breach of a term of the Policy to the extent permitted by applicable law (including Our right to refuse or reduce a claim if You do not comply with or meet a Policy term or condition or where an exclusion or other limitation applies). The law can be complex and We provide a high-level summary below of some key examples on how the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) may affect matters depending on the circumstances. To the extent of any inconsistency the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) will prevail.

Other laws can apply beyond the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) such as the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and the Australian Securities and Investment Commissions Act 2001 (Cth) and You need to seek Your own advice regarding all relevant legal rights You may have.

Terms allowing Us to refuse to pay or reduce a claim (in whole or part) by reason of an act by You or some other person that occurred after the Policy was entered into

Subject to Our rights in relation to fraudulent claims explained below, by reason of section 54 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth), where the effect of the Policy (this includes all terms or conditions, including any exclusion or other limitation) is to allow Us to refuse to pay or reduce a claim (in whole or part) by reason of an act by You or some other person that occurred after the Policy was entered into, We will exercise Our rights under the Policy as explained below.

(Refer to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) for full details.)

Under section 54, an “act” by You or some other person includes an omission and inaction and an act or omission that has the effect of altering the state or condition of the subject-matter of the Policy or of allowing the state or condition of that subject-matter to alter.

How We exercise Our rights where section 54 applies (unless there is a fraudulent claim)

- Where:
 - the act was necessary to protect the safety of a person or to preserve property; or
 - it was not reasonably possible for You or the other person not to do the act; or
 - You prove no part of the loss that gave rise to the claim was caused by the act,We will not refuse to pay or reduce the claim by reason only of that act.
- Where the act:
 - could not reasonably be regarded as being capable of causing or contributing to a loss in respect of which insurance cover is provided by the Policy; or
 - could reasonably be regarded as being capable of causing or contributing to a loss in respect of which insurance cover is provided by the Policy but You prove that some part of the loss that gave rise to the claim was not caused by the act, so far as the claim concerns that part of the loss,We may not refuse to pay or reduce the claim by reason only of that act, but We can reduce Our liability in respect of the claim by an amount that fairly represents the extent to which Our interests were prejudiced as a result of that act.
- Otherwise, where the act could reasonably be regarded as being capable of causing or contributing to a loss in respect of which insurance cover is provided by the Policy, We may refuse to pay the claim.

(Refer to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) for full details.)

Terms allowing Us to refuse or reduce a claim because of pre-existing defects or imperfections existing before the Policy was entered into

Only where section 46 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) is applicable to the Policy:

- where a claim is made in respect of a loss that occurred as a result, in whole or in part, of a defect or imperfection in a thing; and
- at the time when the contract was entered into You were not aware of, and a reasonable person in the circumstances could not be expected to have been aware of, the defect or imperfection,

We may not rely on any provision included in the Policy that has the effect of limiting or excluding Our liability under the Policy by reference to the condition, at a time before the Policy was entered into, of the thing. This does not apply if the Policy is in an excluded class to which section 46 does not apply.

(Refer to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) for full details.)

Terms allowing Us to refuse or reduce a claim because of a pre-existing sickness or disability existing before the Policy was entered into

Only where section 47 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) is applicable to the Policy:

- where a claim under the Policy is made in respect of a loss that occurred as a result, in whole or in part, of a sickness or disability to which a person was subject or had at any time been subject; and
- where, at the time when the contract was entered into, You were not aware of, and a reasonable person in the circumstances could not be expected to have been aware of, the sickness or disability,

We may not rely on a provision included in the Policy that has the effect of limiting or excluding Our liability under the Policy by reference to the sickness or disability to which You were subject at a time before the Policy was entered into.

(Refer to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) for full details.)

Fraudulent claims

In all cases, where a claim is made fraudulently under:

- the Policy; or
- the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) against Us by a person who is not You,

We may refuse payment of the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Under section 56(2) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) a court may, if only a minimal or insignificant part of the claim is made fraudulently and non-payment of the remainder of the claim would be harsh and unfair, order Us to pay, in relation to the claim, such amount (if any) as is just and equitable in the circumstances.

Duty of Utmost Good Faith

The following can also (where applicable) affect Our and Your rights and obligations regarding the operation of, reliance on, or breach of a term of the Policy:

- section 13 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) requires each party to the Policy to act towards the other party, in respect of any matter arising under or in relation to it, with the utmost good faith. The obligation also extends to third party beneficiaries as defined in the Act but only applies to them after the contract is entered into.

- section 14 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) provides that if reliance by a party to the Policy on a provision of the Policy would be to fail to act with the utmost good faith, the party may not rely on the provision.

(Refer to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) for full details.)

Terms Apply to Extent Enforceable

A term (or part of a term) of the Policy will be applied to the extent is not unenforceable under applicable law.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before the Named Insured enters into an insurance contract, they have a duty to tell Us of anything that they know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect Our decision to insure You and on what terms. They have this duty until We agree to insure You.

The Named Insured has the same duty before they renew, extend, vary, or reinstate an insurance contract.

The Named Insured does not need to tell Us anything that:

- reduces the risk We insure You for;
- is of common knowledge;
- We know or should know as an insurer; or
- We waive the Named Insured's duty to tell Us about.

If the Named Insured does not tell Us something

If the Named Insured fails to comply with Your Duty of Disclosure, and We would not have entered into the contract, for the same premium and on the same terms and conditions, had the failure not occurred, We may, subject to applicable law:

- be entitled to cancel the Named Insureds contract or reduce the amount We will pay You if You make a claim, or both; or
- if the Named Insureds failure to tell Us is fraudulent, refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Subject to applicable law or unless we state otherwise, a breach of the duty by one contracting insured affects all contracting insureds in these ways.

Avoiding misrepresentations

Under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) if the Named Insured makes a misrepresentation to Us before the insurance contract is entered into (this includes before each renewal, extension, variation, replacement or reinstatement of an insurance contract) and We would not have entered into the contract, for the same premium and on the same terms and conditions, had the misrepresentation not occurred, We may, subject to applicable law:

- be entitled to cancel the Named Insureds contract or reduce the amount We will pay You if You make a claim, or both; or
- if the Named Insureds misrepresentation was fraudulent, refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Subject to applicable law or unless we state otherwise, a breach of the duty by one insured affects all insureds in these ways.

A misrepresentation includes a statement that is in any way false, misleading, dishonest or which does not fairly reflect the truth. For example, a statement of fact that is not true, a statement of opinion that is not the subject of an honestly held belief or a statement of intent that never existed at the time provided. We will not treat something as a misrepresentation merely because the Named Insured failed to answer a question or gave an obviously incomplete or irrelevant answer to a question.

Refer to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) for full details as this is only a summary.

Answering Our questions

Answers to Our questions help Us decide whether to provide this insurance and if so, on what terms. When answering Our questions:

- take reasonable care to make sure the Named Insureds answers are true, honest, up to date and complete in all respects. The Named Insured may breach the duty if the Named Insured answers without any care as to its truth or if the Named Insured only guesses or suspects the truth. If in doubt, pause the application and obtain the true facts before answering; and
- if another person is answering for the Named Insured, We will treat their answers as the Named Insureds. In such a case, the Named Insured should check the questions have been answered correctly on the Named Insureds behalf by them.

Please note that the Named Insured has obligations beyond these pre contractual duty of disclosure and avoiding misrepresentation obligations once the contract is entered into, which are set out in the contract terms and applicable law.

General Insurance Code of Practice

The Insurance Council of Australia Limited has developed the General Insurance Code of Practice ("the Code"), which is a self-regulatory code for use by all insurers. The Code aims to raise the standards of practice and service in the insurance industry.

Lloyd's Australia Limited has adopted and endorses the Code.

The Code Governance Committee (CGC) is an independent body that monitors and enforces insurers' compliance with the Code.

For further information on the Code, please visit www.codeofpractice.com.au.

For more information on the Code Governance Committee (CGC) go to <https://insurancecode.org.au>.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

The amount payable by You for the Policy includes an amount for GST.

When We pay a claim, Your GST status will determine the amount We pay.

The amount that We are liable to pay under the Policy will be reduced by the amount of any Input Tax Credit (ITC) that You are or may be entitled to claim for the supply of goods or services covered by that payment.

You must advise Us of Your correct Australian Business Number (ABN) and Taxable Percentage. Taxable Percentage is Your entitlement to an ITC on Your premium as a percentage of the total GST on that premium. Any GST liability arising from Your incorrect advice is payable by You.

Where the settlement of a claim is less than the applicable Limit of Liability or the other limits applicable to the Policy, We will only pay the GST (less Your ITC) applicable to the settlement. This means that if these amounts are not sufficient to cover the whole claim, We will only pay the GST relating to Our share of the settlement for the whole claim.

We will pay the claim by reference to the GST exclusive amount of any supply made by any business of Yours which is relevant to the claim.

GST and ITC have the same meaning as given to those words or expressions in A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cth) and related or similar legislation, including any amendments to, delegated legislation thereof, or successor legislation (as applicable).

Several Liability

The liability of an insurer under this contract is several and not joint with other insurers party to this contract. An insurer is liable only for the proportion of liability it has underwritten. An insurer is not jointly liable for the proportion of liability underwritten by any other insurer. Nor is an insurer otherwise responsible for any liability of any other insurer that may underwrite this contract.

The proportion of liability under this contract underwritten by an insurer (or, in the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, the total of the proportions underwritten by all the Lloyd's Underwriters of the syndicate taken together) is shown in the Schedule.

In the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, each Lloyd's Underwriter of the syndicate (rather than the syndicate itself) is an insurer. Each Lloyd's Underwriter has underwritten a proportion of the total shown for the syndicate (that total itself being the total of the proportions underwritten by all the Lloyd's Underwriters of the syndicate taken together). The liability of each Lloyd's Underwriter of the syndicate is several and not joint with any other Lloyd's Underwriter. A Lloyd's Underwriter is liable only for that Lloyd's Underwriter's proportion. A Lloyd's Underwriter is not jointly liable for any other Lloyd's Underwriter's proportion. Nor is any Lloyd's Underwriters otherwise responsible for any liability of any other insurer that may underwrite this contract. The business address of each Lloyd's Underwriter is Lloyd's, One Lime Street, London EC3M 7HA. The identity of each Lloyd's Underwriter of a Lloyd's syndicate and their respective proportion may be obtained by writing to Market Services, Lloyd's, at the above address.

Although reference is made at various parts in this clause to "this contract" in the singular, where the circumstances so require this should be read as a reference to contracts in the plural. The insurers named hereon bind themselves each and for their own part and not one for another.

Each insurer's liability under this contract shall not exceed that percentage or amount of the risk shown against that insurer's name.

Sanctions

We shall not provide cover and We shall not be liable to pay any claim or provide any benefit under the Policy to the extent that the provision of such cover, payment of such claim or provision of such benefit would expose Us, Our parent company or Our ultimate controlling entity to any sanction, prohibition or restriction under United Nations resolutions or the trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations of the European Union, the Commonwealth of Australia, United Kingdom or the United States of America.

Third Party Beneficiaries

The contracting insureds (the Named Insured) are the only parties to the Policy.

No insurance is provided in relation to the interest of any persons not specified as being entitled to access a benefit under the Policy.

The benefit of the cover under the Policy is extended automatically to Third Party Beneficiaries. They are not contracting parties and only access the benefit of cover by reason of the operation of section 48 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). The following sets out how the Policy operates in relation to such persons (subject always to the operation of applicable law).

Access to cover only applies from the time they become a Third Party Beneficiary and ends when they are no longer a Third Party Beneficiary.

Nothing in the Policy is intended to give any such Third Party Beneficiaries any right to enforce any term of the Policy which that person would not have had but for the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). Their rights and obligations are subject to the operation of the Insurance Contracts Act as it applies to such persons and other applicable law.

They:

- have, in relation to their claim, the same obligations to Us as they would have if they were the insured; and
- may discharge the Named Insured's obligations in relation to the loss, damage or liability.

We also have the same defences to an action by such persons as We would have in an action by the Named Insured including, but not limited to, defences relating to the Named Insured's conduct (whether the conduct occurred before or after the Policy was entered into). Any exclusions applying to the Insured also apply to a Third Party Beneficiary claiming under the Policy.

Such persons have no right to cancel or vary the Policy or its cover – only the Named Insured (as the contracting party) and We can do this. If We cancel or vary the Policy or its cover, We do not need to obtain such persons' consent to do so.

We also do not provide any notices in relation to this insurance to such persons as they are not a contracting party to the Policy. We only send notices to the Named Insured who We have contractual obligations to under the Policy.

Neither We nor the Named Insured hold anything on trust for, or for the benefit or on behalf of, any such persons under this insurance arrangement.

The Named Insured:

- does not act on Our behalf in relation to the insurance;
- is not authorised to provide any financial product advice, recommendations or opinions about the insurance; or
- does not receive any remuneration or other benefits from Us.

Any Third Party Beneficiary needs to read this document and other documents forming the Policy carefully to properly understand the benefits they have access to as non-contracting parties.

The insurance cover is subject to the terms, conditions, limitations and exclusions of the Policy.

Any person who may be entitled to a benefit under the Policy should consider obtaining advice as to whether the benefits are appropriate or useful for their personal needs from a person who is licensed to give such advice. No advice is provided by Us or Our representatives that the benefits are appropriate or useful for any person's needs. Nothing prevents such persons from entering into other arrangements regarding insurance.

In some cases the Insured may specify loss payees We will make payments to (e.g. a financier).

This Important Information Section Does Not Tell You All You Need to Know

The Important Information section only provides some important information to be aware of. You must read the Policy for details of what Your and the insurer's and obligations are under this insurance.

Policy Interpretation

Headings are for convenience only and do not affect interpretation; and unless the context indicates a contrary intention:

- a reference to a statute includes its delegated legislation and a reference to a statute or delegated legislation or a provision of either includes consolidations, amendments, successors, re-enactments and replacements thereof;
- a word importing the singular includes the plural (and vice versa);
- a word indicating a gender includes every other gender;

- the words “include”, “including”, “for example”, “particularly” or “such as” or equivalent are not used as, nor are they to be interpreted as, words of limitation, and, when introducing an example, do not limit the meaning of the words to which the example relates to that example or examples of a similar kind;

- a reference to “$” or “dollar” is to Australian currency.

General Conditions Applicable To All Sections Of The Policy

The following only apply to the extent relevant and subject to applicable law which may restrict Our rights in certain circumstances. For more detail on these restrictions see “When We Can Refuse to Pay or Reduce the Amount We Pay Under a Claim”.

Adjustments

If the premiums are calculated on statements and estimates furnished by the Named Insured, the Named Insured shall within a reasonable period (but no later than thirty (30) days where practicable) of the expiry of each Period of Insurance furnish to Us such information as We may require for such expired period, and the premium for such period shall thereupon be adjusted by Us and the difference be paid by or allowed to the Named Insured as the case may be subject to any minimum premium applicable.

The Named Insured must keep a record of all reasonable information requested by Us and must on reasonable notice allow Us or Our nominee to inspect and make copies of those records.

Admission of Liability

You shall not, without Our written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld):

- a) make or give any admission, offer, promise or payment in respect of any claim;
- b) take any action which may be considered to be an admission, offer, promise or payment in respect of any claim; or
- c) repudiate or settle a claim,

for which You seek indemnity under the Policy.

Assignment

The Named Insured cannot assign the Policy nor transfer any interests in it without Our written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld).

Cancellation

Cancellation by the Named Insured

The Named Insured may cancel the Policy at any point in time by contacting Us in writing at the address shown in About SURA Labour Hire. Cancellation will take effect from 4:00pm on the day We receive Your notice of cancellation, or such time as may be otherwise agreed between Us and You.

Cancellation by Us

Subject to applicable law, We may cancel the Policy as set out in the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) by giving the Named Insured written notice to that effect. This includes where:

- a) the Named Insured failed to comply with the duty of the utmost good faith;
- b) the Named Insured failed to comply with the Duty of Disclosure where that duty applies to You,

- c) or made a misrepresentation to Us during the negotiations for the Policy before entering into, varying, extending or renewing the Policy, where this duty applied to You;
- d) the Named Insured failed to comply with a provision of the Policy, including a provision with respect to payment of the Premium;
- e) the Named Insured has made a fraudulent claim under the Policy or under some other contract of insurance (whether with Us or with some other insurer) that provides insurance cover during any part of the period during which the Policy provides insurance cover;
- f) the Named Insured failed to notify Us of any specific act or omission or failure that has occurred after the Policy is entered into where notification is required under the terms of the Policy; or
- g) the effect of the Policy is to authorise Us to refuse to pay a claim, either in whole or in part, by reason of an act or omission or failure of the Named Insured or of some other person and, after the Policy was entered into, such an act or omission or failure has occurred.

Where We cancel the Policy, it will have effect from whichever of the following times is the earliest (unless We tell the Named Insured otherwise in Our cancellation notice and subject to applicable law):

- a) the time when another policy of insurance replacing the Policy is entered into by the Named Insured with Us or another insurer; or
- b) 4:00pm of the third (3rd) business day after the day on which notice was given to the Named Insured unless specified otherwise or the Policy is in force because of section 58 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth), in which case the cancellation will have effect from 4:00pm on the fourteenth (14th) business day after the day on which notice was given to the Named Insured.

Effect of cancellation

Subject to applicable law the Policy with Us ends from the time of cancellation. The Named Insured will not have cover for events occurring or Claims made after that time.

However, cancellation by Us or the Named Insured does not affect any rights that the Named Insured had under the Policy when it was in force. For the Named Insured's rights to any premium refund in relation to a cancellation see "Premium refund" section.

Premium refund

If the Named Insured or We cancel the Policy We may deduct:

- a) a pro rata proportion of the premium for any time for which the Named Insured has been covered. For example, if the Period of Insurance is 12 (twelve) months and the Named Insured has been covered for 6 (six) months, the deduction for the time the Named Insured have been covered will be half the annual premium; and
- b) any government taxes or duties paid by Us in relation to the Policy We cannot recover.

Conduct of Claim

We may take over and conduct in Your name the defence or settlement of any claim or prosecute in Your name for Our benefit any claim for indemnity or damages or otherwise and shall have full discretion in the conduct of any proceedings and in the settlement of any claim.

We reserve entirely Our rights under the Policy. Our rights under the Policy are not affected if We do not conduct the defence.

We may, if We reasonably believe that any claim will not exceed the Excess, instruct You to conduct the defence of the claim, in which case We will (subject to the terms of the Policy) reimburse You for all reasonable Defence Costs and amounts You may otherwise be entitled to in accordance with the Policy terms if any payment You make to dispose of the claim exceeds the Excess.

If You object to a proposal by Us to settle or compromise any claim payable under the Policy and wish to contest or litigate the matter, then You may so elect, but Our liability in respect of any such claim so contested or litigated will not exceed the amount for which, but for such election, it could have been settled or compromised by Us, together with Defence Costs payable in accordance with the terms of the Policy and incurred up to the time of such election.

Neither You nor We will be required to contest or litigate any claim if, in the opinion of Senior Counsel, reasonable attempts should be made to settle the claim. The Senior Counsel shall be mutually agreed upon, or in the absence of such agreement, as nominated by the President of the NSW Bar Association. Senior Counsel shall provide the opinion in writing. In formulating the opinion Senior Counsel shall consider commercial matters including the amount of the claim, the actual and potential loss (including Defence Costs) that may reasonably be incurred in contesting the claim, the liability prospects and the prospect of recovering costs against the claimant in the event that the defence is successful. Senior Counsel shall also provide a settlement range within which reasonable attempts should be made to settle the claim.

If it is the opinion of Senior Counsel that reasonable attempts should be made to settle the claim, You shall not object to Our attempt to do so.

Contribution to Costs

If We have not exercised Our rights under the condition below headed “Payment of Limit of Liability”, Our liability to pay costs and expenses, where any sum or sums exceeding the appropriate Limit of Liability have to be paid to dispose of a claim or claims, shall be limited to such proportion of the said costs and expenses as such Limit of Liability bears to the amount actually so paid.

Co-Operation and Mitigation

You shall at all times and at Your own cost provide Us with all information, evidence, documentation, assistance and cooperation and will execute such documents, including signed statements and affidavits, which We reasonably request.

You shall at all times and at Your own cost use reasonable endeavours to do everything reasonably practicable to avoid or diminish any liability under the Policy, and to assist with the defence, investigation or settlement of any claim or proceedings against You.

You must not pursue a course of action which You know or ought reasonably to know will bring about any claim, unless this is undertaken to discharge Your duties under any relevant law.

You shall maintain records of all occurrences which may result in a claim being notified under the Policy.

We may make any investigation We deem reasonably necessary in relation to any claim being notified to Us under the Policy.

Governing Law

The Policy will be governed in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Australia. Any disputes arising out of the Policy will be subject to determination by any Court of competent jurisdiction within the Australian State or Territory in which the Policy was issued according to the laws applicable to the jurisdiction.

Material Changes

During the Period of Insurance the Named Insured must tell Us as soon as reasonably possible after they become aware (or a reasonable person in Your circumstances would become aware of) of any changes to:

- a) any information contained in the Schedule;
- b) the most recent information provided by the Named Insured to Us in relation to the Policy which the Named Insured know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect the risks insured by Us.

The Named Insured must also notify Us immediately if the Named Insured goes into voluntary bankruptcy, receivership, liquidation or any other form of external administration or fail to pay debts or breach any other obligation giving rise to the appointment of a receiver or bankruptcy or winding-up proceedings

Except to the extent the Policy expressly provides otherwise and subject to applicable law, where the change:

- a) reduces the risk We insure You for We may (if applicable) provide the Named Insured with a refund of a portion of the premium paid by the Named Insured where the change affects the Premium payable; or
- b) increases the risk We insure You for We may:
 - i. refuse to accept the change;
 - ii. agree to the change in writing subject to terms acceptable to Us, provided that the Named Insured pay or agree to pay Us any additional Premium We may require; or
 - iii. cancel the Policy; or
 - iv. choose not to renew the Policy.

Notices

Any communications to Us under the Policy must be sent by You to Us at Our address specified in the Schedule.

Notice to the Named Insured may be given to the Named Insured or the Named Insured's agent at the broker name and address specified in the Schedule.

Any notice by Us given to any Named Insured is deemed to be notice to each party comprising the Named Insured.

Notification

If an event occurs which may give rise to a claim under the Policy, the Named Insured shall:

- a) inform Us of such event as soon as reasonably practicable, and in regard to Section Two within the Period of Insurance in which the claim is made or the loss is discovered;

- b) provide in writing if reasonably requested, including verification on oath, such particulars, documents and information as We may reasonably require as soon as reasonably practicable;
- c) as soon as reasonably practicable:
 - i. on receipt forward to Us every letter, writ, summons and process;
 - ii. inform Us in writing of any prosecution, inquest or other proceeding of which notice is given to You; and
- d) provide all assistance which We may reasonably require.

We will in doing the above act reasonably having regard to Your interests, and will keep You informed if You ask Us to.

Other Insurance

If, at the time any claim arises under the Policy, there is any other insurance contract in force covering the same claim, You must notify Us as soon as reasonably practicable providing full details of such other insurance contract, including the identity of the insurer, the policy number and such further information as We may reasonably require.

Payment of Limit of Liability

We may at any time pay to You the appropriate Limit of Liability (after deducting therefrom any sum or sums already paid) or any lesser amount for which a claim or claims may be settled and thereupon We shall relinquish the conduct and control of, and shall be under no further liability in connection with, such claim or claims except for Defence Costs incurred prior to the date of such payment.

Variation of the Policy

No variation of the Policy will be effective, except when made by Our issuing a written endorsement.

Our total aggregate liability during any one Period of Insurance for all claims arising out of Products will not exceed the Aggregate Limit of Liability.

In the event of any claims for Personal Injury arising from a latent injury, disease or sickness, such injury, disease or sickness will be deemed to have happened on the day the injury, disease or sickness was first medically diagnosed.

We will also:

- a) pay all reasonable costs and expenses (other than loss of earnings), incurred by You with Our prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld), in the defence or settlement of any Claim or action against You. Conditions Applicable To Section One

Broadform Liability

The following only apply to the extent relevant and subject to applicable law which may restrict Our rights in certain circumstances. For more detail on these restrictions see “When We Can Refuse to Pay or Reduce the Amount We Pay Under a Claim”.

Acquisition, Merger or Winding Up of the Insured

If, during the Period of Insurance, any of the following events occur:

- a) a Merger or Acquisition of the Named Insured; or
- b) the appointment of a receiver, controller, administrator or liquidator to the Named Insured, or the commencement of a scheme or arrangement or compromise or a winding up process in respect of the Named Insured, then the Policy will remain in force until the expiry of the Period of Insurance.

Allocation of Loss

This condition applies to any part of any loss resulting from a Claim which is in respect:

- a) of one person insured under the Policy; or
- b) of more than one person insured under the Policy, whether jointly or severally; or
- c) of one or more persons insured under the Policy and one or more persons or entities who are not insured under the Policy, whether jointly or severally, and which is partly covered and partly not covered under the Policy, (together loss to be allocated).

We may determine a fair and reasonable allocation of the covered part of the loss to be allocated among the relevant persons insured under the Policy and Us having regard to the extent of the comparative responsibility of each of the persons insured under the Policy for the loss to be allocated. Our consideration of what is fair and reasonable may include the following factors (as applicable):

- a) the nature of the Claim against each person insured under the Policy;
- b) the issues of fact and law in relation to each person insured under the Policy;
- c) the content and the manner of the conduct of any defence of the Claim;
- d) the relative degree of personal responsibility for the loss;
- e) the extent to which the responsibility of each person insured under the Policy for the loss is joint, several or shared;
- f) the extent to which any person or entity, other than a person insured under the Policy, would obtain a benefit from the payment by Us;
- g) the extent to which the loss is solely of that each person insured under the Policy;
- h) the extent to which the issues in the Claim against each person insured under the Policy are in common with the issues in the Claim against any other person or entity;
- i) the extent to which the loss is partly covered and partly not covered under the Policy; and
- j) in the event of a settlement, the likely comparative responsibility had the settlement not occurred.

If agreement cannot be reached on the allocation the parties agree to seek an expert determination in accordance with the Australian Disputes Centre (“ADC”) Mediation Guidelines, from an expert agreed by the parties, or if the parties do not agree on an expert, an expert nominated by the then current CEO of the ADC or the CEO’s nominee.

Each party agrees to sign an agreement with the expert that confirms the following:

- a) unless agreed otherwise, each party will pay an equal share of the fees for the appointed expert (to be charged at the expert’s usual rate); and
- b) the expert may:
 - i. consider relevant industry practice;
 - ii. consider all information presented to the expert by either party;
 - iii. request more information from either party;
 - iv. request a meeting with the parties (to which they may bring their lawyers);
- c) the expert must decide within thirty (30) days after the agreement is signed, and need not give reasons; and
- d) the expert’s decision will be binding on the parties and final; and
- e) the expert will exclude all liability of the expert to either party (including liability for negligence) to the full extent permitted by law.

This allocation applies for all purposes under this Section One of the Policy.

Any allocation of loss will not apply to or create a presumption with respect to the allocation of any other loss on account of such Claim.

Cross Liability and Non Imputation

Where there is more than one Insured it is agreed that:

- a) each Insured shall be covered as if it made its own proposal for this insurance;
- b) any declaration, statement or representation made in any proposal shall be construed as a separate declaration, statement or representation by each Insured; and
- c) any knowledge possessed by any Insured shall not be imputed to any other Insured.

Where more than one party comprises the Insured, each of the parties will be considered as a separate and distinct person and the word “Insured” will be considered as applying to each party in the same manner as if a separate Policy had been issued to each of the said parties. As a consequence Our total liability does not exceed the Limit of Liability applicable to the Policy.

Reasonable Care

You, at Your own expense, shall take or cause to be taken all reasonable care to:

- a) maintain premises, plant, equipment and everything used in the Business in proper repair;
- b) employ only competent Employees;
- c) prevent the manufacture, sale or supply of defective Products;
- d) prevent Personal Injury, Damage to Property and Advertising Injury;
- e) comply with all statutory obligations and regulations imposed by any authority; and

- f) remedy any defects or eliminate any dangers which may give rise to Personal Injury, Damage to Property and Advertising Injury.

Subrogation and Recoveries

You will take all necessary steps to reasonably required by Us preserve Our rights, by way of subrogation to recover from third parties any liability or loss indemnified under this section of the Policy. You will not, without Our prior consent in writing:

- a) release, agree not to sue, waive or prejudice, any such rights; or
- b) enter into any arrangement or compromise or do any act whereby any rights to which We would be subrogated are, or may be prejudiced, except in respect to a specific written request by a Host Employer or principal for whom You are performing work and who is entitled to cover under the Policy, and provided the specific written request was received by You prior to the Occurrence.

You agree to provide Us with all relevant information, evidence, documentation, assistance and co-operation and to execute such documents, including signed statements and affidavits, which We reasonably request in the exercise of Your rights of recovery.

You will at all times use reasonable endeavours to do everything reasonably practicable to assist Us in the exercise of Your rights of recovery.

All recoveries obtained by You from other parties will be allocated, after the settlement of any Claim under the Policy as follows:

- a) firstly, to Your benefit to reduce or extinguish the amount of Your loss to the extent that it would have been paid under the Policy but for the fact that such loss exceeds the sum of the Limit of Liability and the Excess; and
- b) secondly, to Our benefit for all sums paid in settlement of loss arising under the Policy; and
- c) thirdly, to Your benefit for the Excess under the Policy.

All recoveries will be applied as described herein only after deduction of the reasonable cost of obtaining such recovery. All recoveries made prior to settlement of any Claim under the Policy will be held for Our benefit and applied as stated herein after settlement if any is made.

Recoveries do not include any amount recovered from insurance, suretyship, reinsurance, security or indemnity taken for Our benefit.

Other Conditions also apply under the Policy terms. See for example, “General Conditions Applying to All Sections”.

Our consideration of what is fair and reasonable may include without limitation, the following factors (as applicable):

- j) in the event of a settlement, the likely comparative responsibility had the settlement not occurred.

If agreement cannot be reached on the allocation the parties agree to seek an expert determination in accordance with the Australian Disputes Centre (“ADC”) Mediation Guidelines, from an expert agreed by the parties, or if the parties do not agree on an expert, an expert nominated by the then current CEO of the ADC or the CEO’s nominee.

Each party agrees to sign an agreement with the expert that confirms the following:

- a) unless agreed otherwise, each party will pay an equal share of the fees for the appointed expert (to be charged at the expert’s usual rate); and

- b) the expert may:
 - i. consider relevant industry practice;
 - ii. consider all information presented to the expert by either party;
 - iii. request more information from either party;
- request a meeting with the parties (to which they may bring their lawyers); and
- c) the expert must decide within thirty (30) days after the agreement is signed, and need not give reasons; and
 - d) the expert's decision will be binding on the parties and final; and
 - e) the expert will exclude all liability of the expert to either party (including liability for negligence) to the full extent permitted by law.

This allocation applies for all purposes under this Section Two of the Policy including the Advancement of Defence Costs and Representation Expenses Extension and the Subrogation and Recoveries Claims Condition.

Any allocation of Loss will not apply to or create a presumption with respect to the allocation of any other Loss on account of such Claim.

Claims Conduct

We are entitled to take over and conduct in Your name the defence or settlement of any Claim and will have full discretion in the conduct of any proceedings and in the settlement of any Claim.

We reserve entirely Our rights under the Policy. Our rights under the Policy are not affected if We do not conduct the defence.

Neither You nor Us will be required to contest or litigate any Claim if, in the opinion of Senior Counsel, reasonable attempts should be made to settle the Claim. The Senior Counsel shall be mutually agreed upon, or in the absence of such agreement, as nominated by the President of the NSW Bar Association. The cost to obtain the opinion will be advanced by Us and treated as Defence Costs.

Senior Counsel shall provide the opinion in writing. In formulating the opinion Senior Counsel shall consider commercial matters including the amount of the Claim, the actual and potential Loss (including Defence Costs) that may reasonably be incurred in contesting the Claim, the liability prospects and the prospect of recovering costs against the claimant in the event that the defence is successful. Senior Counsel shall also provide a settlement range within which reasonable attempts should be made to settle the Claim.

If it is the opinion of Senior Counsel that reasonable attempts should be made to settle the Claim, You shall not object to Our attempt to do so.

Co-Operation

In the event of a Claim, Policy Claim, Business Crisis Event or Loss, You will at all times and at Your own cost provide Us with all information, evidence, documentation, assistance and cooperation and will execute such documents, including signed statements and affidavits, which We reasonably request.

You will at all times and at Your own cost use reasonable endeavours to do everything reasonably practicable to avoid or diminish Loss and to assist with the defence, investigation or settlement of any Claim, Policy Claim or Business Crisis Event.

We may make any investigation We reasonably deem necessary in relation to the defence or settlement of any Claim, Policy Claim or Business Crisis Event.

Covered Property

In respect of Loss of Covered Property, We will not be liable for more than the actual cash value of Covered Property at the time of Loss or the actual cost of repairing or replacing the Covered Property with property of similar quality or value whichever is the lesser.

Notification

You must give to Us notification of any Claim made against any Insured, Discovery of any Fidelity Loss, any Business Crisis Event or any Loss, as soon as reasonably practicable within the Period of Insurance or within any applicable extended reporting period at the Claims Notification address specified in the Schedule.

Each notification of a Claim must include so far as practicable:

- a) the identity of the claimant or potential claimant; and
- b) the nature of the Claim; and
- c) the likely quantum of the Claim.

Each notification of a Policy Claim must include affirmative proof duly sworn, with full particulars of the Money, Securities or Covered Property involved.

You must, as soon as reasonably practicable, provide Us with such further information and documentation as We may reasonably require.

Securities

In respect of Loss of Securities, We will not be liable for more than the actual market value of the Securities at the close of business on the business day immediately preceding the day on which the Loss was Discovered or the actual cost of replacing the Securities, whichever is less, plus the cost of posting any required lost instrument bond (such cost will be paid by Us on Your behalf).

The Indirect or Consequential Loss Exclusion does not apply to the calculation of Loss of Securities.

Settlement

You must not settle or offer to settle any Claim, incur any Defence Costs or Representation Expenses or otherwise assume any contractual obligation or admit any liability in respect of any Claim without Our prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld).

If You object to a proposal by Us to settle or compromise any Claim payable under the Policy and wish to contest or litigate the matter, then You may so elect, but Our liability in respect of any such Claim so contested or litigated will not exceed the amount for which, but for such election, it could have been settled or compromised by Us, together with Defence Costs payable in accordance with the terms of the Policy and incurred up to the time of such election.

Subrogation and Recoveries

All recoveries

All recoveries obtained by You from other parties will be allocated, after the settlement of any Claim or Policy Claim under the Policy as follows:

- a) firstly, to Your benefit to reduce or extinguish the amount of Your Loss to the extent that it would have been paid under the Policy but for the fact that such Loss exceeds the sum of the Limit of Liability or the Fidelity sub-limit, and the Excess where applicable; and
- b) secondly, to Our benefit for all sums paid in settlement of Loss arising under the Policy; and
- c) thirdly, to Your benefit for the Excess under the Policy.

All recoveries will be applied as herein only after deduction of the reasonable cost of obtaining such recovery. All recoveries made prior to settlement of any Claim or Policy Claim under the Policy will be held for Our benefit and applied as stated herein after settlement if any is made.

Recoveries do not include any amount recovered from insurance, suretyship, reinsurance, security or indemnity taken for Our benefit.

Fidelity recoveries

- b) to the extent allowed by law, the insurer will deduct the following from any amount payable in respect of Fidelity Loss caused by or resulting from a dishonest or fraudulent act:

 - ii. any monies held by the Company and belonging to such person; and
 - iii. any monies recovered under (a) above; and all such monies will be applied towards reducing the amount of the Loss.

Preservation of rights of recovery

You will take all reasonable and necessary steps to preserve Your rights of recovery. You will not, without Our prior consent in writing (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld):

- a) release, agree not to sue on, waive or prejudice, any such rights; or
- b) enter into any arrangement or compromise or do any act whereby any rights or remedies to which We would be subrogated are or may be prejudiced.

Provision of information and assistance

You agree to provide Us with all information, evidence, documentation, assistance and co-operation and to execute such documents, including signed statements and affidavits, which We reasonably request in the exercise of Our rights of recovery.

You will at all times use reasonable endeavours to do everything reasonably practicable to assist in the exercise of Your rights of recovery.

We will in doing all of the above act reasonably having regard to Your interests, and will keep You informed if You ask Us to.

Other Conditions also apply under the Policy terms. See for example, General Conditions Applying to All Sections.
