Part 1 – Important Information

About this Document

This is an important document that must be read carefully before making a decision in relation to this insurance (which is not compulsory). The Insurer is responsible for the content of this document.

This document can help you to:

- decide whether this insurance will meet Your needs; and
- compare it with other products You may be considering.

See the General Definitions section page for details of terms that have special meaning. In some cases, a word with special meaning may be defined in a specific part of the Policy.

What You Need to Read and Understand

This document contains:

- this Part 1 – Important Information section which contains certain important notices, terms and other information;
- Part 2 – Policy Cover Sections which sets out the sections of cover this insurance can provide (subject to eligibility) and the other standard terms and conditions which will apply to the covers (including any applicable limits and exclusions). It includes General Definitions which set out the special meaning We give to certain words used in the Policy. Other words may be specially defined in a Policy section, term or condition.

If We issue You with a Policy, You will be given a Schedule. The Schedule sets out certain additional terms applicable to the Policy and other matters specific to You such as the cover You have been issued and the Policy limits of liability.

The Schedule must be read together with this document and any other documents We agree with You will form part of the Policy that We issue. Where We agree, documents other than this document and the Schedule will form part of the Policy, any such documents will be dated and will include a statement identifying them as part of the Policy.

Together they form the Policy/contract with Us. These are all important documents and should be carefully read together and kept in a safe place for future reference.

Claims Made and Notified Insurance

Section 3 – Third Party Cyber is issued on a claims made and notified basis.

This means that this section of the Policy covers Claims that are first made against You by another person as defined in Section 3 – Third Party Cyber and notified to Us during that Period of Insurance (not claims You submit for cover under the Policy).

Where Your Policy has an extended or additional reporting period, subject to the terms of the Policy, You may have:

- an additional period to tell Us about claims first made against You during the Period of Insurance; and/or
- cover for claims first made against You during the extended reporting period and which You tell Us about during the extended or additional reporting period – provided the claim is based on an act, error, or omission alleged to have been committed prior to the expiry of the Period of Insurance.

The Policy doesn't cover facts or circumstances of which You first became aware prior to the Period of Insurance, and which You knew or ought reasonably to have known had the potential to give rise to a claim against You, subject to any continuity of cover term which may, subject to its terms, provide an exception to this.

If a retroactive date is applied or shown on the Schedule, the Policy also doesn't cover claims arising directly or indirectly from any acts, errors, omissions, or events actually or allegedly occurring before that date.

The above is only a high-level overview. You must refer to the Policy for full terms and conditions that apply.

Operation of section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth)

This notice and explanation does not form part of and is not a term of the Policy.

However, if, during the Period of Insurance, You become aware of facts that might give rise to a Claim against You, section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) provides You with an option to notify Us of those facts during the Period of Insurance. If You give Us written notification of such facts during the Period of Insurance pursuant to section 40(3), as long as You were not aware of such facts prior to the commencement of the Period of Insurance, the Policy will apply to a Claim (arising from those facts) made against You, even if the Claim is made against You after expiry of the Period of Insurance, subject to other terms, conditions and exclusions of the Policy.

For Your information, section 40(3) is detailed below:

“(3) Where the insured gave notice in writing to the insurer of facts that might give rise to a claim against the insured as soon as was reasonably practicable after the insured became aware of those facts but before the insurance provided by the contract expired, the insurer is not relieved of liability under the contract in respect of the claim, when made, by reason only that it was made after the expiration of the period of insurance provided by the contract”.

Disclaimer

When the First Named Insured enters into the Policy they confirm and warrant that they have read the Policy documents provided to them.

Excess

If You make a claim under the Policy, You may be required to pay one or more Excesses. The descriptions of these Excesses and the circumstances in which they are applied are explained in this document, the Schedule and other documents forming the Policy.

The amount of any Excess(es) applicable to the Policy will be provided to the Insured before they agree to enter into a Policy with Us.

If You don't pay the Excess(es) to Us or as We direct, We may deduct the Excess(es) from the amount We pay in relation any claim. Unless We expressly state otherwise, the relevant Limit of Indemnity We pay up to is less any applicable Excess(es).

When We Can Refuse to Pay or Reduce the Amount We Pay Under a Claim

We may only ever refuse to pay or reduce the amount We pay under a claim to the extent permitted by law.

Some situations in which We may refuse to pay or reduce the amount We pay under a claim under the Policy (to the extent permitted by applicable law) include (but are not limited to):

- a) when You apply for cover (this includes new business, variations, extensions, reinstatements, and renewals) and do not comply with Your Duty of Disclosure;
- b) if You do not comply with or meet a Policy term or condition or We can rely on an exclusion or other limitation (all referred to as terms when used in the Policy) – See Our rights regarding the operation of or breach of a term of the Policy.
- c) if You make a fraudulent claim – See Fraudulent claims for more detail;
- d) where You have not or are not acting in accordance with Your duty of utmost good faith under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) – See Duty of Utmost Good Faith for more detail.

We may also have cancellation rights in the above circumstances to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Subject to applicable law, the amount of any claim entitlement can also be affected and/or reduced by other things, including any limits (e.g. monetary or time limits) or Excess(es), any outstanding Premium and recoveries You or We might make relevant to a loss as set out in the Policy terms.

See Our rights regarding the operation of or breach of a term of the Policy for more detail.

Our rights regarding the operation of or breach of a term of the Policy

We will only rely on any rights We have regarding the operation of or breach of a term of the Policy to the extent permitted by law (including Our right to refuse or reduce a claim if You do not comply with or meet a Policy term or condition or where an exclusion or other limitation applies). The law can be complex and We provide a high-level summary below of some key examples on how the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) may affect matters depending on the circumstances. To the extent of any inconsistency the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) will prevail.

Other laws can apply beyond the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) such as the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and the Australian Securities and Investment Commissions Act (Cth) and You need to seek Your own advice regarding all relevant legal rights You may have.

Terms allowing Us to refuse to pay or reduce a claim (in whole or part) by reason of an act by You or some other person that occurred after the Policy was entered into

Subject to Our rights in relation to fraudulent claims explained below, by reason of section 54 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth), where the effect of the Policy (this includes all terms or conditions, including any exclusion or other limitation) is to allow Us to refuse to pay or reduce a claim (in whole or part) by reason of an act by You or some other person that occurred after the Policy was entered into, We will exercise Our rights under the Policy as explained below (Refer to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) for full details).

Under section 54, an act by You or some other person includes an omission and inaction and an act or omission that has the effect of altering the state or condition of the subject-matter of the Policy or of allowing the state or condition of that subject-matter to alter.

How We exercise Our rights where section 54 applies (unless there is a fraudulent claim)

- Where:
 - the act was necessary to protect the safety of a person or to preserve property;
 - it was not reasonably possible for You or the other person not to do the act; or
 - You prove no part of the loss that gave rise to the claim was caused by the act,We will not refuse to pay or reduce the claim by reason only of that act.
- Where the act:
 - could not reasonably be regarded as being capable of causing or contributing to a loss in respect of which insurance cover is provided by the Policy; or
 - could reasonably be regarded as being capable of causing or contributing to a loss in respect of which insurance cover is provided by the Policy but You prove that some part of the loss that gave rise to the claim was not caused by the act, so far as the claim concerns that part of the loss,We may not refuse to pay or reduce the claim by reason only of that act, but We can reduce Our liability in respect of the claim by an amount that fairly represents the extent to which Our interests were prejudiced as a result of that act.
- Otherwise, where the act could reasonably be regarded as being capable of causing or contributing to a loss in respect of which insurance cover is provided by the Policy, We may refuse to pay the claim.

(Refer to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) for full details.)

Terms allowing Us to refuse or reduce a claim because of pre-existing defects or imperfections existing before the Policy was entered into

Only where section 46 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) is applicable to the Policy:

- where a claim is made in respect of a loss that occurred as a result, in whole or in part, of a defect or imperfection in a thing; and
- at the time when the contract was entered into the First Named Insured was not aware of, and a reasonable person in the circumstances could not be expected to have been aware of, the defect or imperfection,

We may not rely on any provision included in the Policy that has the effect of limiting or excluding Our liability under the Policy by reference to the condition, at a time before the Policy was entered into, of the thing. This does not apply if the Policy is in an excluded class to which section 46 does not apply.

(Refer to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) for full details.)

Fraudulent claims

In all cases, where a claim is made fraudulently under:

- the Policy; or
 - the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) against Us by a person who is not the First Named Insured,
- We may refuse payment of the claim to the extent permitted by law. Under section 56(2) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) a court may, if only a minimal or insignificant part of the claim is made fraudulently and non-payment of the remainder of the claim would be harsh and unfair, order Us to pay, in relation to the claim, such amount (if any) as is just and equitable in the circumstances.

Duty of Utmost Good Faith

The following can also (where applicable) affect Our and Your rights and obligations regarding the operation of, reliance on, or breach of a term of the Policy:

- section 13 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) requires each party to the Policy to act towards the other party, in respect of any matter arising under or in relation to it, with the utmost good faith. The obligation also extends to third party beneficiaries as defined in the Act but only applies to them after the contract is entered into.
- section 14 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) provides that if reliance by a party to the Policy on a provision of the Policy would be to fail to act with the utmost good faith, the party may not rely on the provision.

(Refer to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) for full details.)

Terms Apply to Extent Enforceable

A term (or part of a term) of the Policy will be applied to the extent it is not unenforceable under applicable law.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before the First Named Insured enters into an insurance contract (referred to as You and Your in this notice), You have a duty to tell Us anything that they know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect Our decision to insure You and on what terms. You have this duty until We agree to insure You.

You have the same duty before they renew, extend, vary, or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell Us anything that:

- reduces the risk We insure You for;
- is of common knowledge;
- We know or should know as an insurer; or
- We waive the duty to tell Us about.

If You do not tell Us something

If You fail to comply with Your Duty of Disclosure, and We would not have entered into the contract, for the same premium and on the same terms and conditions, had the failure not occurred, We may, subject to applicable law:

- be entitled to cancel Your contract or reduce the amount We will pay You if You make a claim, or both; or
- if Your failure to tell Us is fraudulent, refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Subject to applicable law or unless We state otherwise, a breach of the duty by one contracting Insured affects all contracting insureds in these ways.

Avoiding misrepresentations

Under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) if the First Named Insured (referred to as You and Your in this notice) makes a misrepresentation to Us before the insurance contract is entered into (this includes before each renewal, extension, variation, replacement or reinstatement of an insurance contract) and We would not have entered into the contract, for the same premium and on the same terms and conditions, had the misrepresentation not occurred, We may, subject to applicable law:

- be entitled to cancel Your contract or reduce the amount We will pay You if You make a claim, or both; or
- if Your misrepresentation was fraudulent, refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Subject to applicable law or unless We state otherwise, a breach of the duty by one Insured affects all insureds in these ways.

A misrepresentation includes a statement that is in any way false, misleading, dishonest or which does not fairly reflect the truth. For example, a statement of fact that is not true, a statement of opinion that is not the subject of an honestly held belief or a statement of intent that never existed at the time provided. We will not treat something as a misrepresentation merely because You failed to answer a question or gave an obviously incomplete or irrelevant answer to a question.

Refer to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) for full details as this is only a summary.

Answering Our questions

Answers to Our questions help Us decide whether to provide this insurance and if so, on what terms. When answering Our questions:

- take reasonable care to make sure Your answers are true, honest, up to date and complete in all respects. You may breach the duty if You answer without any care as to its truth or if You only guess or suspect the truth. If in doubt, pause the application and obtain the true facts before answering; and
- if another person is answering for You, We will treat their answers as Yours. In such a case, You should check the questions have been answered correctly on Your behalf by them.

Please note that You have obligations beyond these pre contractual duty of disclosure and avoiding misrepresentation obligations once the contract is entered into, which are set out in the contract terms and applicable law.

General Insurance Code of Practice

The Insurance Council of Australia Limited has developed the General Insurance Code of Practice (the Code), which is a self-regulatory code for use by all insurers. The Code aims to raise the standards of practice and service in the insurance industry.

Lloyd's has adopted the Code on terms agreed with the Insurance Council of Australia. For further information on the Code, please visit www.codeofpractice.com.au.

The Code Governance Committee (CGC) is an independent body that monitors and enforces insurers' compliance with the Code. For more information on the Code Governance Committee (CGC) go to insurancecode.org.au.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

The amount payable by You for the Policy includes an amount for GST.

When We pay a Claim, Your GST status will determine the amount We pay.

The amount that We are liable to pay under the Policy will be reduced by the amount of any Input Tax Credit (ITC) that You are or may be entitled to claim for the supply of goods or services indemnified by that payment.

You must advise Us of Your correct Australian Business Number (ABN) and Taxable Percentage. Taxable Percentage is Your entitlement to an ITC on the premium as a percentage of the total GST on that premium. Any GST liability arising from Your incorrect advice is payable by You.

Where the settlement of a claim is less than the applicable Limit of Indemnity or the other limits applicable to this Policy, We will only pay the GST (less Your ITC) applicable to the settlement. This means that if these amounts are not sufficient to indemnify the whole claim, We will only pay the GST relating to Our share of the settlement for the whole claim.

We will pay the claim by reference to the GST exclusive amount of any supply made by any Business of Yours which is relevant to the claim.

GST and ITC have the same meaning as given to those words or expressions in A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cth) and related or similar legislation, including any amendments to, delegated legislation thereof, or successor legislation (as applicable).

Our Contract with the First Named Insured

Where We agree to enter into a Policy with the First Named Insured it is a contract of insurance between Us and the First Named Insured.

If We issue the First Named Insured with a Policy, they will be given a Schedule. The Schedule sets out certain additional terms applicable to the Policy and other matters specific to the Policy such as the cover issued and the Limit(s) of Indemnity.

The Schedule must be read together with this document and any other documents We agree with the First Named Insured will form part of the Policy that We issue. Any new or replacement Schedule We may send the First Named Insured detailing changes to the Policy or the Period of Insurance, will become the current Schedule, which the First Named Insured should carefully read and retain.

Where We agree, documents other than this document and the Schedule will form part of the Policy (often called endorsements), any such documents will be dated and will include a statement identifying them as part of the Policy.

Together they form the First Named Insured's Policy/contract with Us. These are all important documents and should be carefully read together and kept in a safe place for future reference.

The Policy also extends cover to certain persons or entities who are not contracting parties but are entitled to access cover by reason of section 48 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) as third party beneficiaries.

They are persons other than the First Named Insured set out in the definition of You, Your, Insured in the General Definitions section.

No insurance is provided in relation to the interest of any persons not specified as being entitled to benefit under the Policy under the definition of You, Your, Insured.

For details on the rights and obligations of such Third Party Beneficiaries see Third Party Interests on page 17.

Personal information is information or an opinion about an identified individual, or an individual who is reasonably identifiable:

- a) whether the information or opinion is true or not;
- b) whether the information or opinion is recorded in a material form or not.

Sensitive information includes, amongst other things, information about an individual's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, membership of a political organisation, religious beliefs or affiliations, philosophical beliefs, membership of a professional or trade association, membership of a trade union, sexual orientation or practices, criminal record, health information about an individual, genetic information, biometric information or templates.

You have given Us Your consent to collect, use and disclose Your personal and sensitive information in order to provide You with the relevant services and/or products.

When You give Us personal information about other individuals, We rely on You to have made or make the individual aware that You will or may provide their personal information to Us and the types of other parties and service providers We may provide it to, the relevant purposes We and the other parties and service providers will use it for, and how they can access it. If You have not done or will not do either of these things, You must tell Us before You provide the relevant personal information to Us.

We will protect Your information using physical, technical, and administrative security measures to reduce the risks of loss, misuse, unauthorised access, disclosure and alteration. Some of the safeguards that We use are firewalls and data encryption, physical access controls to Our data centres, and information access authorisation controls.

We disclose personal information to other parties and service providers whom We believe are necessary to assist Us and them in providing the relevant services and/or products. For example, in handling claims, We may have to disclose Your personal and other information to other parties and service providers such as Our claim management partner, other insurers, reinsurers, loss adjusters, external claims data collectors, investigators and agents, facilitators, assessors or other parties as required by law. We limit the use and disclosure of any personal information provided by Us to them to the specific purpose for which We supplied it.

We may disclose Your personal information to Our insurers, reinsurers, related entities and service providers overseas where it is reasonably necessary for, or directly related to, the functions, services or activities We provide to You. If You do not provide the personal information requested and/or do not provide Us with Your consent to the use and disclosure of Your personal information as set out in this Privacy Statement, Your insurance application may not be accepted, or We may not be able to administer Your Policy, or You may be in breach of Your duty of disclosure, the consequences of which are set out under the heading Your Duty of Disclosure in this document.

We will notify you as soon as possible if Your personal information is involved in a data breach that is likely to result in serious harm to You.

If You would like a copy of Our Privacy Policies, would like to seek access to or correct Your personal information, opt out of receiving materials We send, complain about a breach of Our privacy or You have any query on how Your personal information is collected or used, or any other query relating to Our Privacy Policies, please contact Us.

Sanctions

We shall not be deemed to provide cover and We shall not be liable to pay any claim or provide any benefit under the Policy to the extent that the provision of such cover, payment of such claim or provision of such benefit would expose Us, Our parent company or Our ultimate controlling entity to any sanction, prohibition or restriction under United Nations resolutions or the trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations of the European Union, the Commonwealth of Australia, United Kingdom or the United States of America.

Several Liability

The liability of an Insurer under this contract is several and not joint with other Insurers party to the Policy. An Insurer is liable only for the proportion of liability it has underwritten.

An Insurer is not jointly liable for the proportion of liability underwritten by any other Insurer. Nor is an Insurer otherwise responsible for any liability of any other Insurer that may underwrite the Policy.

The proportion of liability under the Policy underwritten by an Insurer (or, in the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, the total of the proportions underwritten by all the Lloyd's Underwriters of the syndicate taken together) is shown in the Schedule.

In the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, each Lloyd's Underwriter of the syndicate (rather than the syndicate itself) is an Insurer.

Each Lloyd's Underwriter has underwritten a proportion of the total shown for the syndicate (that total itself being the total of the proportions underwritten by all the Lloyd's Underwriters of the syndicate taken together). The liability of each Lloyd's Underwriter of the syndicate is several and not joint with any other Lloyd's Underwriter.

A Lloyd's Underwriter is liable only for that Lloyd's Underwriter's proportion.

A Lloyd's Underwriter is not jointly liable for any other Lloyd's Underwriter's proportion. Nor is any Lloyd's Underwriter otherwise responsible for any liability of any other Insurer that may underwrite this contract. The business address of each Lloyd's Underwriter is Lloyd's, One Lime Street, London EC3M 7HA. The identity of each Lloyd's Underwriter of a Lloyd's syndicate and their respective proportion may be obtained by writing to Market Services, Lloyd's, at the above address.

Although reference is made at various parts in this clause to this contract in the singular, where the circumstances so require this should be read as a reference to contracts in the plural.

The Insurers bind themselves each and for their own part and not one for another.

Each Insurer's liability under the Policy shall not exceed that percentage or amount of the risk shown against that Insurer's name.

Third Party Interests

The contracting insureds (the First Named Insured) are the only parties to the Policy. No insurance is provided in relation to the interest of any persons not specified as being entitled to benefit under the Policy.

The benefit of the cover under the Policy is extended automatically to Third Party Beneficiaries. They are not contracting parties and only access the benefit of cover by reason of the operation of section 48 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). The following sets out how the Policy operates in relation to such persons (subject always to the operation of applicable law).

Access to cover only applies from the time they become a Third Party Beneficiary and ends when they are no longer a Third Party Beneficiary.

Nothing in the Policy is intended to give any such Third Party Beneficiaries any right to enforce any term of the Policy which that person would not have had but for the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). Their rights and obligations are subject to the operation of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) as it applies to such persons and other applicable law.

They:

- have, in relation to their claim, the same obligations to Us as they would have if they were the First Named Insured; and
- may discharge the First Named Insured's obligations in relation to the loss, damage or liability.

We also have the same defences to an action by such persons as We would have in an action by the First Named Insured including, but not limited to, defences relating to the First Named Insured's conduct (whether the conduct occurred before or after the contract was entered into). Any exclusions applying to the First Named Insured also apply to a Third Party Beneficiary claiming under the Policy.

Such persons have no right to cancel or vary the Policy or its cover – only the First Named Insured (as the contracting party) and We can do this. If We cancel or vary the Policy or its cover, We do not need to obtain such persons' consent to do so.

We also do not provide any notices in relation to this insurance to such persons as they are not a contracting party to the Policy. We only send notices to the First Named Insured who We have contractual obligations to under the Policy.

Neither We nor the First Named Insured hold anything on trust for, or for the benefit or on behalf of, any such persons under this insurance arrangement. The First Named Insured:

- does not act on Our behalf in relation to the insurance;
- is not authorised by Us to provide any financial product advice, recommendations or opinions about the insurance.

Policy Interpretation

Headings are for convenience only and do not affect interpretation; and unless the context indicates a contrary intention:

2. Limit of Indemnity

Our liability in respect of Claims is subject to the applicable Limit of Indemnity as stated in the Schedule, which is the most We will pay in respect of all Claims for the Period of Insurance. Our liability is in excess of the applicable Excess. Costs (or related expenses under clause 1.1.) form part of and are not in addition to any Limit of Indemnity.

For the purpose of the Limit of Indemnity and the Excess all Interrelated Claims are deemed to be a single Claim.

3. Extensions

Unless stated otherwise on the Schedule, We will provide the following extensions within the cover provided under this section. The cover provided under these extensions is otherwise subject to the insuring clause of this Section 2 – Clinical Trials Liability and all other terms, conditions, exclusions, definitions and Limit(s) of Indemnity applicable to the Policy and are part of and not in addition to the Limit of Indemnity, except for Emergency Medical Expenses per Research Subject as shown on the Schedule.

Where a Limit of Indemnity or sub-limit of indemnity is stated in the Policy Schedule as in the aggregate, that aggregate is the maximum We will pay for all insured events during the Policy Period under this Section 2 – Clinical Trials Liability.

3.1. Product Recall Expenses

We shall indemnify You for any Product Recall Expenses necessary because the use of any Products during a Clinical Trial has resulted in or has a high likelihood of resulting in Bodily Injury, illness or disability or physical damage to or destruction of Property due to:

- a) any unintentional error or deficiency in the manufacture, design or labelling of the Product; or
- b) a ruling of a Government or other regulatory body requiring You to recall any Product as a result of any matters set out above.

Any amount payable under this extension is payable in addition to the Limit of Indemnity applicable to Clinical Trials Liability stated in the Schedule.

3.4. Difference in conditions/difference in limits extension

3.4.1. Difference in Conditions

Notwithstanding the Territorial Limits applying to this Policy where a claim is made under a Local Policy and is rejected as not falling within its policy terms and conditions, then this Policy will operate to provide an indemnity, but only to the extent that We would have accepted the claim had it been made under this Policy.

We shall not be liable to pay the amount of any deductible or excess that would have applied under such Local Policy.

3.4.2. Difference in Limits

Notwithstanding the Territorial Limits applying to this Policy in the event that a claim is payable under a Local Policy and the total amount of the claim exceeds the limit of indemnity under that policy, this Policy will pay the difference between the limit of indemnity payable under the Local Policy and the corresponding Limit of Indemnity as stated in the Schedule.

The cover under this Policy does not extend to any risk or loss which is uninsurable under the law governing the territory in which the Local Policy is issued.

Conditions applicable to this extension:

1. any Local Policy shall be maintained in force during the Period of Insurance of this Policy other than in respect of the erosion of any aggregate limits of indemnity; and
2. all Local Policy conditions shall be complied with.

The total amount payable under this Policy and all Local Policies shall not exceed the Limit of Indemnity stated in the Schedule. Nothing in this extension shall serve to increase the Limit of Indemnity under this Policy.

In the event of partial exhaustion of a Local Policy this Policy shall pay in excess of that reduced underlying limit of indemnity subject to all the terms, conditions, exclusions and limitations of this Policy.

In the event of total exhaustion of a Local Policy this Policy shall continue in force as the underlying insurance subject to all the terms, conditions, exclusions and limitations of this Policy including the amount of any deductible or excess, self-insured retention or co-insurance specified in the Schedule.

Exclusions applicable to this extension

General Conditions

The following only apply to the extent relevant and subject to applicable law which may restrict Our rights in certain circumstances. For more detail on these restrictions see When We Can Refuse to Pay or Reduce the Amount We Pay Under a Claim.

These General Conditions apply to all sections of the Policy. There may be additional conditions applicable to individual sections, including the Claims section.

Alteration

During the Period of Insurance You must tell Us as soon as reasonably possible after You become aware (or a reasonable person in Your circumstances would become aware of) of any changes:

- d) in the description of the Business.

Except to the extent the Policy expressly provides otherwise and subject to applicable law and the type of change notified, We may (amongst other things):

- i. if the notified change would require a variation to the policy terms, agree (on terms acceptable to Us) or refuse to agree to any such variation;
- ii. if We agree to a variation and the change affects the Premium payable, provide You with a premium adjustment (up or down); or
- iii. cancel the Policy; or
- iv. choose not to renew the Policy.

Assignment

Any assignment or transfer of this Policy or of any of Your rights shall not be valid without Our prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld).

Cancellation

Cancellation by the First Named Insured

The First Named Insured may cancel the Policy at any time by contacting Us in writing at the address shown in About SURA Technology Risks. Cancellation will take effect from 4:00pm on the day We receive the First Named Insured's notice of cancellation or such time as may be otherwise agreed between Us and the First Named Insured.

Cancellation by Us

Subject to applicable law, We may cancel the Policy as set out in the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) by giving the First Named Insured written notice to that effect. This can include where:

- a) You failed to comply with the duty of the utmost good faith;
- b) You failed to comply with the duty of disclosure where the duty applies to you, or made a misrepresentation to Us during the negotiations for the Policy, before entering into, varying, extending or renewing the Policy;
- c) You failed to comply with a provision of the Policy, including a provision with respect to payment of the premium;
- d) You made a fraudulent claim under the Policy or under some other contract of insurance (whether with Us or with some other insurer) that provides insurance cover during any part of the period during which the Policy provides insurance cover; or
- e) You failed to notify Us of any specific act or omission or failure that has occurred after the Policy is entered into where notification is required under the terms of the Policy; or
- f) the effect of the Policy is to authorise Us to refuse to pay a claim, either in whole or in part, by reason of an act or omission or failure of You or of some other person and, after the Policy was entered into, such an act or omission or failure has occurred.

When We cancel the Policy, it will have effect from whichever of the following times is the earliest (unless We tell You otherwise in Our cancellation notice and subject to applicable law):

- i. the time when another policy of insurance replacing the Policy is entered into by You with Us or another insurer; or
- ii. 4:00pm of the third (3rd) business day after the day on which notice was given to the First Named Insured unless specified otherwise or the Policy is in force because of section 58 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth), in which case the cancellation will have effect from 4:00pm on the fourteenth (14th) business day after the day on which notice was given to the First Named Insured.

Effect of cancellation

Subject to applicable law, the Policy with Us ends from the time of cancellation. However, cancellation by Us or the First Named Insured does not affect any rights that You had under the Policy when it was in force. For Your rights to any premium refund in relation to a cancellation see Premium refund section.

Premium refund

If the Policy is cancelled by either the First Named Insured or Us, We will refund the premium for the Policy less a pro rata proportion of the premium to cover the period for which insurance applied less any government fees, taxes and duties We cannot recover. We will not refund the administration fee or policy fee shown on the invoice.

We will not refund any premium if a claim has been notified to Us or We have paid a Claim to the First Named Insured or on the First Named Insured's behalf under the Policy.

Governing Law

The Policy will be governed in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Australia. Any disputes arising out of the Policy will be subject to determination by an Australian Court within the State or Territory in which the Policy was issued and according to the laws applicable to the jurisdiction.

Cross Liabilities

If the Insured comprises more than one party, We shall treat each party as though a separate Policy had been issued to each of them. However, nothing in this clause shall increase Our liability to pay any amount in excess of the applicable Limit of Indemnity.

Declarations

If any part of the premium is based on estimates provided by You, You shall keep an accurate record containing all relevant particulars, and shall allow Us to inspect such record upon our reasonable request. You shall, within one (1) month after the expiry of the Period of Insurance, provide such information as We may require and the premium shall then be adjusted and the difference paid by or allowed to the First Named Insured subject to any applicable minimum premium.

Excess

We shall only be liable for any amount which is in excess of the applicable Excess as specified in the Schedule. The Excess shall be uninsured and We shall have no liability for all or any portion of such Excess.

If You don't pay the Excess to Us or as We direct, We may deduct the Excess from the amount We pay for any claim. The relevant Limit of Indemnity we pay up to is less any applicable Excesses, unless We expressly state otherwise.
